Facilitating Support Groups -- Almost Everything You Need to Know

Friday, March 19th, 2010

10 AM - 3 PM

Facilitating support groups can often be stressful work. Budget short-falls and constraints may limit a facilitators' ability to have new materials to use in support groups. This interactive workshop will give participants the opportunity to experience a support group while practicing newly acquired skills. Participants will also learn about free resources for support group materials.
